From the Garden State Collection

Following on his highly successful consignment in February, our consignor has chosen to bring forth another smaller, yet still incredible, offering of wines from his private collection. All of the wines were purchased on release from respected East Coast retailers—mainly acquired directly from our New York Director of Fine & Rare Wine, Ian Dorin. Their friendship over the past 15 years has led each of them down countless rabbit holes in the exploration and hunt for high-quality wines from every region in the world. Today's offering brings treasures from Burgundy, the Rhone, and California. Prior to removal for this sale, the wines were kept in a custom-built 13,000 bottle home cellar or professional storage on the East Coast.

Cellar Pruning at its Best

One of our east coast friends wanted to clean out a few things he wasn't going to get around to drinking, so we gladly took them on! All expertly stored, and carefully procured, we hope to see more from this client in the future!
