

THE WINE CELLAR OF TRU RESTAURANT

Consigned by a private collector who recently acquired the cellar of the shuttered Michelin two-starred Chicago fine dining restaurant. TRU, a Wine Spectator Grand Award winner, featured an extensive collection with over 1,500 selections focusing on top Burgundy, Bordeaux, & Rhône. The wines were originally acquired on release from local distributors, special allocations direct from producers, and reputable auction houses. All wines were stored in the restaurant's extensive professional cellars.

Château Latour 1959

Pauillac, 1er cru classé

Very high shoulder level; damp stained label; slightly corroded capsule
 "...aromas of melted caramel, tobacco, and jammy red and black fruits...sumptuous, complex, fragrant, super-rich Latour cuts a broad swath across the palate..." (96 points) Robert Parker, WA #129, June 2000

2458 1 bottle per lot $1400-2000

Château Pichon-Longueville, Baron 1961

Pauillac, 2me cru classé

One top shoulder, one very high shoulder level; both labels slightly bin soiled; both capsules slightly corroded

"...impressively deep, its nose a pleasant surprise: fruit, vanilla, a fragrant jamminess matched by its flavour. Overall lean, spicy, with good grip but not too tannic...Last noted...March 1989 *." MB, Vintage Wine, Harcourt (2002)

2459 2 bottles per lot $500-750

Château La Mission Haut-Brion 1970

Graves, cru classé

Both high shoulder level; one slightly damp stained label; both capsules corroded

"...Mellow, biscuity nose...A little spiky on the palate with acidity and volatility just starting to come to the fore...clean fruitiness dominating the palate...Slightly dry finish." (16.5 points) Jancis Robinson, JR, June 2008

2460 2 magnums per lot $550-850

Château Palmer 1983

Margaux, 3me cru classé

Scuffed label

"...one of the biggest, most concentrated, and powerful Palmers made in the last 40 years...Potentially this wine remains the most extraordinary Palmer after the 1961..." (98 points) RP, Bordeaux, 4th Edition (2003)

2461 1 jeroboam (5L) per lot $2200-3200

Château Lafite Rothschild 1986

Pauillac, 1er cru classé

One base neck level; both labels scuff marked; both capsules worn, one also torn

"...outstanding richness, a deep color, medium body, a graceful, harmonious texture, and superb length...penetrating fragrance of cedar, chestnuts, minerals..." (100 points) RP, Bordeaux, 3rd Edition (1998)

2462 2 magnums per lot $2800-4200

Château Léoville Las Cases 1989

St-Julien, 2me cru classé

Two base neck, one top shoulder level; all labels slightly bin soiled; three capsules slightly corroded, one torn; multiple importers

"...ripe, sweet, black-cherry fruit, nicely-integrated, toasty new oak... pure winemaking style...tighter, more compact finish...outstanding, rich, medium-weight..." (91 points) Robert Parker, WA #109, February 1997

2463 6 bottles per lot $750-1100

Château Palmer 1989

Margaux, 3me cru classé

Both top shoulder level; both labels scuffed; one capsule worn and torn

"One of the superstars of the vintage...Gorgeous and seemingly fully mature yet brilliantly balanced...may well turn out to be a modern-day clone of the glorious 1953." (95 points) RP, Bordeaux, 4th Edition (2003)

2464 2 magnums per lot $1000-1500

Château Pétrus 1996

Pomerol

"...big, monolithic, foursquare wine...sweet berry fruit intermixed with earth, pain grillé, and coffee scents. Full-bodied and muscular...high levels of tannin, and a backward style..." (92 points) Robert Parker, WA #122, April 1999

2465 1 bottle per lot $1100-1700

Château Haut-Brion Blanc 1988

Pessac-Léognan

CHATEAU D'YQUEM

Château d'Yquem 1934

Sauternes, premier cru superieur

Late release; orange-gold color

"...Muted nose though hints of age. Quite dry by now but very tight and dynamic. Like a polished chestnut in taste somehow...Wonderfully creamy." (19 points) Jancis Robinson, JR, February 2008

(See photo opposite page)

2467 1 bottle (owc) per lot $600-900

Château d'Yquem 1935

Sauternes, premier cru superieur

Top shoulder level; late release; honey-gold color

"...fragrant, with a high-toned, crystallised violets bouquet that re-minded me of a refined old Sercial madeira. Good flavour, sweet entry... distinctly dry finish..." Michael Broadbent, Vintage Wine, Harcourt (2002)

(See photo opposite page)

2468 1 bottle (owc) per lot $1300-1900

Château d'Yquem 1937

Sauternes, premier cru superieur

Base neck level; late release; deep caramel color; owc - missing top

"...scents of orange rind, mandarin, honeysuckle and melted candle wax...linear and correct on the entry and certainly gives notice of an immensely powerful Yquem..." (96 points) Neal Martin, WA #213, June 2014

2469 1 bottle (owc) per lot $2800-4200

Château d'Yquem 1939

Sauternes, premier cru superieur

Late release; orange-gold color

"...a light chlorine-tinged bouquet with melted wax scents, simple but pure. The palate has a pleasing viscosity on the palate, almost Auslese-like in texture..." (90 points) Neal Martin, WA #222, December 2015

2470 1 bottle (owc) per lot $600-900

Château d'Yquem 1940

2471 1 bottle (owc) per lot $750-1100

Château d'Yquem 1942

Sauternes, premier cru superieur

Top shoulder level; torn capsule; late release; deep caramel color

"...rich, heavily honeyed, toffee-like nose. Holding its sweetness with attractive raisiny flavour not unlike a mature 5 puttonyos Tokaji Aszú, with similar acidity..." Michael Broadbent, Vintage Wine, Harcourt (2002)

(See photo opposite page)

2472 1 bottle (owc) per lot $1200-1800

Château d'Yquem 1944

Sauternes, premier cru superieur

Top shoulder level; late release; deep caramel color

"Three good and consistent notes: amber gold, orange-tinged, vivid apple-green rim; lovely 'honeyed bouquet', 'lanolin', 'orange blossom' repeated; very attractive flavour, good length, dry fragrant finish...*." MB, Vintage Wine, Harcourt (2002)

(See photo below)

2473 1 bottle (owc) per lot $650-950

Château d'Yquem 1946

Sauternes, premier cru superieur

Base neck level; late release; honey-gold color; owc - missing top

"A rarely seen and even more rarely celebrated vintage for Bordeaux... Deep coppery, foxy rich colour. Crème brûlée nose. Deep sweet round barley sugar palate...Much, much better than expected." [?] points Jancis Robinson, JR, 12 January 2006

2474 1 bottle (owc) per lot $1000-1500

Château d'Yquem 1950

Sauternes, premier cru superieur

Base neck level; late release, rebouché en 1992 on cork; orange-gold color

"...Caramel notes but still amazingly fresh. Tangy and fresh and it did indeed have some notes of dried apricots. Slightly toasty then like creamy barley sugar. Just lovely wine..." [19.5 points] Jancis Robinson, JR, September 2010

2475 1 bottle (owc) per lot $550-850

Château d'Yquem 1953

Sauternes, premier cru superieur

Slightly corroded capsule; late release; orange-gold color

"Brownish copper - reddish. Spicy nose and then really quite dry on the finish but with lovely haunting aroma...Dances along." (17.5 points) Jancis Robinson, JR, February 2008

(See photo below)

2476 1 bottle (owc) per lot $750-1100

Château d'Yquem 1954

Sauternes, premier cru superieur

Base neck level; late release; orange-gold color

"Tawny colour with a very pale rim. Butterscotch notes on the nose, then very lively palate. Creamy texture. Great energy...An exceptional 1954." (19 points) Jancis Robinson.com, November 2007

2477 1 bottle (owc) per lot $700-1000

LOUIS JADOT

Louis Jadot is one of the largest and finest estates in Burgundy. Although Jadot operates as both a domaine and négociant, the estate personally vinifies all of its grapes, whether purchased or from domaine vineyards. With the goal of intervening with the wine as little as possible, Jadot adheres to two risky practices as part of its vinification: a particularly long cuvaision (often upwards of a month,) and fermentation at unusually high temperatures. These customs, while daunting, consistently reward Jadot with wines of superior quality and longevity.

Bonnes-Mares 2005 Louis Jadot

ARMAND ROUSSEAU

The Rousseau family is one of the most respected in the region, with significant Grand Cru holdings in Chambertin, Chambertin Clos de Bèze, and Gevrey-Chambertin Clos St-Jacques. These fine parcels of land, combined with the estate's old vines and low yields, add up to a truly wonderful domaine. The Rousseau style is recognized as elegant, pure, and quintessentially Burgundian.

Chambertin 2002 Armand Rousseau*Côte de Nuits, grand cru*

"Rousseau's 2002 Chambertin is in the zone. Succulent, racy and open, the 2002 is ready to deliver pleasure. The purity of the fruit alone is striking...the flavors remain very bright and fresh..." (96 points) AG, Vinous.com, August 2017

DOMAINE RAMONET

Domaine Ramonet's founder, the famed Pierre Ramonet, was raised in the vines from childhood, and used his experience to selectively expand and cultivate the estate into one of the top producers of white Burgundy. Today, the Domaine is run by Pierre's grandsons, Noël and Jean-Claude, who emphasize risk-taking over standardization. It is this philosophy that lends the wines their individuality and character. Ramonet whites are known for being exceptionally distinct from one another, ranging from elegant and refined (the Bâtard-Montrachet) to bold and intense (the Bienvenues).

Bâtard-Montrachet 2007 Domaine Ramonet
Côte de Beaune, grand cru

DOMAINE DE LA ROMANEE-CONTI

The legendary reputation of Domaine de la Romanée-Conti's wines dates to the 1700s, when the then Prince de Conti reserved the estate's entire production for his private use at extravagant palace parties. The quality of DRC's wines are attributed to the Domaine's propagation of Pinot Noir vines with a pristine genetic legacy, its keen respect for the terroir and climat of its holdings, and the expertise of the individuals caring for the vines and their fruit. Today, the Domaine owns 29 hectares of the highest caliber vineyards in all of Burgundy, with seven red Grand Crus, two white Grand Crus, and, occasionally, a red Premier Cru.

"There is no question that the Domaine de la Romanée-Conti... is Burgundy's most famous estate...The abbreviation 'DRC' has as much significance for the wine world as 'IBM' and 'GE' do in the business world...Unquestionably, in the greatest vintages, they literally stand alone...a bright, shining empire that cannot be matched for beauty or power." Robert Parker Jr., The World's Greatest Wine Estates

RARE BURGUNDY FROM LEROY AS WELL AS A SELECTION OF FINE CALIFORNIA WINES AND GEORGE T. STAGG BOURBON FROM THE CELLAR OF A LONG TIME CLIENT AND DEAR FRIEND ON THE WEST COAST

Recently Removed from Custom-Built, Temperature- and Humidity-Controlled Storage

LEROY

Deemed the "greatest estate in Burgundy" by Robert Parker, Domaine Leroy's reputation precedes itself. The estate favors the quality and concentration given by low yields, treats its fruit with the upmost care, and strives to emphasize the uniqueness of each terroir in vinification. According to Parker, tasting Leroy's wines, "...with their extraordinary ripeness, unctuousness, and opulence, with no hard tannin to be found, makes one think that, yes, low yields do translate into physiologically ripe fruit, concentrated wines, and exquisite quality." J. L. CHAVE

Those who cherish the power and perfume of classically made Hermitage will stand by the statement that the greatest red and white examples emerge from the Chave family cellars. The expertise that Gérard and his son, Jean-Louis, draw upon is not only their own, but also the accumulated wisdom of their ancestors going back generations since the Chaves began making Hermitage in 1481. The method for all of their wines are thoroughly traditional—perfectionist farming, low yields, full physiological ripeness, minimal new oak, minimal intervention, and no filtering. There are no secrets, just unmatched attention to detail. The vinification starts only after the wines have been kept apart for 12 months, whereupon through numerous experimental assemblages, they aim to find the ultimate blend. As Gérard told Stephen Tanzer in 2000, "We create a wine that no early taster knows. Every year we start from zero in assembling the blend." Centuries in the making, this approach has one goal: a pure rendering of noble northern Rhône terroir.

BRUNO GIACOSA

Bruno Giacosa has worked in the vineyards of Northern Italy since 1944. Today, Giacosa owns 45 acres of vines, including the Falletto vineyard as well as coveted parcels of the Asili and Rabajà crus. While he takes advantage of a few improved techniques, Giacosa remains a traditionalist at heart, and above all else strives to capture the essence of the vines and terroir in his wines. According to Robert Parker, "He is known by virtually all of his colleagues and peers in Piedmont as 'The Professor of Nebbiolo' or 'The Great Man' or 'The Maestro.'" Robert Parker Jr., The World's Greatest Wine Estates

MARCASSIN WINERY

Given proprietor and winemaker Helen Turley's reputation and experience, it's no surprise that Marcassin's wines are repeatedly cited as some of the premier examples of Californian Pinot Noir and Chardonnay. Turley, who has spent stints at Pahlmeyer, Colgin and Bryant, among others, uses a radical approach to viticulture at Marcassin, seeking fully mature, uniformly ripe fruit while keeping any intervention in the winemaking process extremely minimal. According to Parker, Marcassin's efforts "...combine in a magical manner to produce intense wines of razor-sharp clarity and complexity." Robert Parker Jr., The World's Greatest Wine Estates
